Please answer the following which will assist us in providing you with the best possible support during your pilgrimage:

We welcome all people to our pilgrimage. If you need assistance (other than a wheelchair pusher) and are staying at a hotel, you should be accompanied by your own helper/carer. Care is provided for those who stay at the Accueil Notre Dame. Pre-booked standard and electric wheelchairs are free of charge on our flights. Please contact us before you book, providing make and model of any mobility aids you wish to take. If not advised at the time of booking, we cannot guarantee the airline will accept them at a later date. Please also complete the appropriate section of the pilgrimage medical form. Standard wheelchairs can be provided in Lourdes by the Catholic Association if requested in advance on this form and the medical form.
